Dear Ms. Ye:

I wish you success as you plan your upcoming "Chinese Commodities Exhibition Show," to be held from July 1-10, 2005. I'm very pleased that you have chosen New York City as the host of this event. It is places like the Chinese Merchandise Wholesale Center that make New York City such a center of global trade and commerce.

Your commitment forging new partnerships and serving companies is a great sign for businesses in New York City, and your work represents an exciting new era for the wholesale trade and exhibition industry between the United States and China. You open the door for American enterprises to easily recognize new and effective ways to bring products and services to their customers. This will contribute to the City's goals of promoting tourism, hospitality and job creation. I encourage you to visit the New York City Department of Small Business Services online at www.nyc.gov/sbs. Please contact us if we can be of assistance in any way.

Thank you doing business in New York City. Once again, congratulations.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Walsh
